

MEET DEAN KYTE...

Dean Kyte is a Melbourne writer, artist, filmmaker and flaneur.

From poetry translations to his trademark Artisanal Pulp Fiction, Dean's literary oeuvre ranges wide - and so does his style.

The essence of Dean's style is his love of language - the abstract beauty of words on pages.

Whether he is weaving dense, epic sentences full of multilingual neologisms or sharp, staccato sentences bristling with hardboiled argot, Dean is a poet in prose.

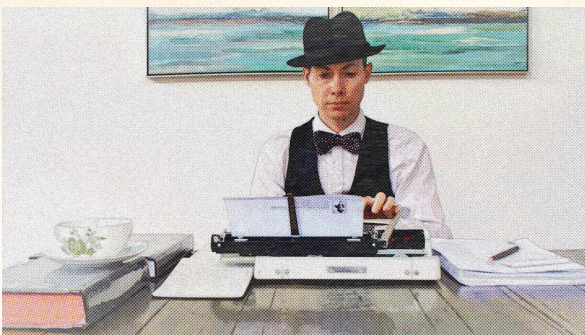

The self-published author of 5 books, Dean not only writes the words, he edits, illustrates and designs every page of his books by hand.

When you purchase a book by Dean Kyte, you're receiving a literary experience like no other - the rare book that is an objet d'art in its own right, passing directly from the mind and hands of the artist to yours.

You're also receiving the ultimate 'book unboxing' experience. Signed and wax-sealed by Dean as a mark of artistic authenticity, your book comes elegantly giftwrapped to make your reading experience extra special.

Dean also provides a custom order service. Mixed orders, mailings to multiple giftees, or saying it special with thoughtful, personalised dedications penned by this master wordsmith on your behalf can all be negotiated.

Just contact Dean to make an inquiry.

THINGS WE DO FOR LOVE (2015)

- Softcover: $A30.00 (includes worldwide postage)
- eBook: $A10.00
- Audiostory: $A10.00
- eBook/audiostory combo: $A15.00

He sees her on a train out of Roma Street - a Goth girl with an emo vibe. He has just five stops - maybe less - to say something to her.

Will he or won't he? These are some of the things we do for love...

Penned in the trashy style of classic pulp fiction, the hardboiled style applied to the tale of a fumbling pick-up gives this short story a comic - and a surprisingly touching - tone.

FOLLOW ME, MY LOVELY... (2016)

- Softcover: $A40.00 (includes worldwide postage)
- eBook: $A10.00

Two friendly rivals, two Norwegian tourists - and both guys with their eyes on the same dame.

Who will get her? And if he gets her, can our hero get her back to his?

The romantic stakes are raised in the gripping follow-up to Things we do for Love as our pocket-edition Casanova coolly comments on every tell and play of his competition!

A true romance tale told from the male perspective in a witty send-up of classic pulp fiction.

FLOWERS RED AND BLACK (2013)

- Hardcover: $A50.00 (includes worldwide postage)
- Softcover: $A30.00 (includes worldwide postage)
- eBook: $A10.00

In this stunning bouquet of love lyrics by Charles Baudelaire, Dean Kyte brings the 'damned poet' into the 21st century with his original interpretations of some of the most famous poems from Les Fleurs du mal (1857).

Written in modern, contemporary English, these 12 new translations from the French, never before published, are a great favourite of the ladies. Nothing says 'I love you' quite like the dark eroticism of Baudelaire's love poems.

BRAZEN GIFTS FOR GOLD (2015)

- Hardcover: $A50.00 (includes worldwide postage)
- Softcover: $A30.00 (includes worldwide postage)
- eBook: $A10.00

Michelangelo Buonarroti was not merely the pre-eminent sculptor, painter and architect of the High Renaissance, but he was also a gifted poet.

In 12 new, original translations from Italian, Dean Kyte conquers the almost insurmountable challenges of rendering Michelangelo's titanic thoughts in clear, concise English.

These Platonic love poems, full of inspirational imagery and meditative quotes, are a perfect introduction to the fascinating inner life of one of the world's most revered artists.

ORPHEID: L'ARRIVÉE (2012)

- Softcover: $A45.00 (includes worldwide postage)
- eBook: $A15.00

Discover how Dean Kyte became 'the Melbourne Flaneur' - on the streets of Paris!

Written in a multilingual patois of English and French, this is a book for the courageous reader, an adventure in language whose dazzling kaleidoscope of inventive wordplay mirrors the altered state of a young writer undertaking an odyssey to Paris.

THE MELBOURNE FLÂNEUR (2020)

- Zine: $A25.00 (includes worldwide postage)
